Reading Wonders is designed to be easy for young learners to navigate.

Reading selections include several interactive tools.

The screenshot shows a digital reading interface for the story "Why Fir Tree Keeps His Leaves". The interface includes a title bar with "Wonders Reading/Writing Workshop" and "CCSS Shared Read Genre • Myth". The main content area features a colorful illustration of a green fir tree and autumn trees. A text box on the right contains the story's beginning. Callouts point to various interactive features: "Listen" (audio player), "Audio Mode: On/Off" (toggle), "Essential Question" (a question about myths), and "Highlighter" (text highlighting tool). The bottom of the interface shows a progress bar and "Table of Contents" link.
